Setup allow list, block list and star name list

To set up allow list, block list and star name list:

1. Press HOME (CELL 1) or CALLER ID (CELL 2), or the telephone base in idle mode.
2. Select Add contact.
3. Enter a telephone number and press SET.
4. Enter a name and press SELECT.
5. Press the star key to select star name list.
6. Press SELECT.

Ringer volume

You can set the ringer volume level to one of the six levels:

1. Press HOME (CELL 1) or CALLER ID (CELL 2), or the telephone base in idle mode.
2. Select RINGER VOLUME.
3. Use any dialing keys to increase or decrease the volume.
4. Press SELECT.

Caller ID

When the feature is on, the telephone displays the caller's name, phone number, and service provider. If no caller information is available, the telephone displays Unknown.

Smart call blocker

If you have subscribe the call blocking service, then the telephone displays the name and phone number of the blocked call.

Caller ID

When the feature is on, the telephone displays the caller's name, phone number, and service provider. If no caller information is available, the telephone displays Unknown.

Ringer volume

You can set the ringer volume level to one of the six levels:

1. Press HOME (CELL 1) or CALLER ID (CELL 2), or the telephone base in idle mode.
2. Select RINGER VOLUME.
3. Use any dialing keys to increase or decrease the volume.
4. Press SELECT.

Caller ID

When the feature is on, the telephone displays the caller's name, phone number, and service provider. If no caller information is available, the telephone displays Unknown.

Smart call blocker

If you have subscribe the call blocking service, then the telephone displays the name and phone number of the blocked call.

Caller ID

When the feature is on, the telephone displays the caller's name, phone number, and service provider. If no caller information is available, the telephone displays Unknown.

Ringer volume

You can set the ringer volume level to one of the six levels:

1. Press HOME (CELL 1) or CALLER ID (CELL 2), or the telephone base in idle mode.
2. Select RINGER VOLUME.
3. Use any dialing keys to increase or decrease the volume.
4. Press SELECT.

Caller ID

When the feature is on, the telephone displays the caller's name, phone number, and service provider. If no caller information is available, the telephone displays Unknown.

Smart call blocker

If you have subscribe the call blocking service, then the telephone displays the name and phone number of the blocked call.

Caller ID

When the feature is on, the telephone displays the caller's name, phone number, and service provider. If no caller information is available, the telephone displays Unknown.

Ringer volume

You can set the ringer volume level to one of the six levels:

1. Press HOME (CELL 1) or CALLER ID (CELL 2), or the telephone base in idle mode.
2. Select RINGER VOLUME.
3. Use any dialing keys to increase or decrease the volume.
4. Press SELECT.

Caller ID

When the feature is on, the telephone displays the caller's name, phone number, and service provider. If no caller information is available, the telephone displays Unknown.

Smart call blocker

If you have subscribe the call blocking service, then the telephone displays the name and phone number of the blocked call.

Caller ID

When the feature is on, the telephone displays the caller's name, phone number, and service provider. If no caller information is available, the telephone displays Unknown.

Ringer volume

You can set the ringer volume level to one of the six levels:

1. Press HOME (CELL 1) or CALLER ID (CELL 2), or the telephone base in idle mode.
2. Select RINGER VOLUME.
3. Use any dialing keys to increase or decrease the volume.
4. Press SELECT.

Caller ID

When the feature is on, the telephone displays the caller's name, phone number, and service provider. If no caller information is available, the telephone displays Unknown.

Smart call blocker

If you have subscribe the call blocking service, then the telephone displays the name and phone number of the blocked call.

Caller ID

When the feature is on, the telephone displays the caller's name, phone number, and service provider. If no caller information is available, the telephone displays Unknown.

Ringer volume

You can set the ringer volume level to one of the six levels:

1. Press HOME (CELL 1) or CALLER ID (CELL 2), or the telephone base in idle mode.
2. Select RINGER VOLUME.
3. Use any dialing keys to increase or decrease the volume.
4. Press SELECT.

Caller ID

When the feature is on, the telephone displays the caller's name, phone number, and service provider. If no caller information is available, the telephone displays Unknown.

Smart call blocker

If you have subscribe the call blocking service, then the telephone displays the name and phone number of the blocked call.

Caller ID

When the feature is on, the telephone displays the caller's name, phone number, and service provider. If no caller information is available, the telephone displays Unknown.

Ringer volume

You can set the ringer volume level to one of the six levels:

1. Press HOME (CELL 1) or CALLER ID (CELL 2), or the telephone base in idle mode.
2. Select RINGER VOLUME.
3. Use any dialing keys to increase or decrease the volume.
4. Press SELECT.

Caller ID

When the feature is on, the telephone displays the caller's name, phone number, and service provider. If no caller information is available, the telephone displays Unknown.

Smart call blocker

If you have subscribe the call blocking service, then the telephone displays the name and phone number of the blocked call.

Caller ID

When the feature is on, the telephone displays the caller's name, phone number, and service provider. If no caller information is available, the telephone displays Unknown.

Ringer volume

You can set the ringer volume level to one of the six levels:

1. Press HOME (CELL 1) or CALLER ID (CELL 2), or the telephone base in idle mode.
2. Select RINGER VOLUME.
3. Use any dialing keys to increase or decrease the volume.
4. Press SELECT.

Caller ID

When the feature is on, the telephone displays the caller's name, phone number, and service provider. If no caller information is available, the telephone displays Unknown.

Smart call blocker

If you have subscribe the call blocking service, then the telephone displays the name and phone number of the blocked call.

Caller ID

When the feature is on, the telephone displays the caller's name, phone number, and service provider. If no caller information is available, the telephone displays Unknown.

Ringer volume

You can set the ringer volume level to one of the six levels:

1. Press HOME (CELL 1) or CALLER ID (CELL 2), or the telephone base in idle mode.
2. Select RINGER VOLUME.
3. Use any dialing keys to increase or decrease the volume.
4. Press SELECT.

Caller ID

When the feature is on, the telephone displays the caller's name, phone number, and service provider. If no caller information is available, the telephone displays Unknown.

Smart call blocker

If you have subscribe the call blocking service, then the telephone displays the name and phone number of the blocked call.

Caller ID

When the feature is on, the telephone displays the caller's name, phone number, and service provider. If no caller information is available, the telephone displays Unknown.

Ringer volume

You can set the ringer volume level to one of the six levels:

1. Press HOME (CELL 1) or CALLER ID (CELL 2), or the telephone base in idle mode.
2. Select RINGER VOLUME.
3. Use any dialing keys to increase or decrease the volume.
4. Press SELECT.

Caller ID

When the feature is on, the telephone displays the caller's name, phone number, and service provider. If no caller information is available, the telephone displays Unknown.

Smart call blocker

If you have subscribe the call blocking service, then the telephone displays the name and phone number of the blocked call.

Caller ID

When the feature is on, the telephone displays the caller's name, phone number, and service provider. If no caller information is available, the telephone displays Unknown.

Ringer volume

You can set the ringer volume level to one of the six levels:

1. Press HOME (CELL 1) or CALLER ID (CELL 2), or the telephone base in idle mode.
2. Select RINGER VOLUME.
3. Use any dialing keys to increase or decrease the volume.
4. Press SELECT.

Caller ID

When the feature is on, the telephone displays the caller's name, phone number, and service provider. If no caller information is available, the telephone displays Unknown.

Smart call blocker

If you have subscribe the call blocking service, then the telephone displays the name and phone number of the blocked call.

Caller ID

When the feature is on, the telephone displays the caller's name, phone number, and service provider. If no caller information is available, the telephone displays Unknown.

Ringer volume

You can set the ringer volume level to one of the six levels:

1. Press HOME (CELL 1) or CALLER ID (CELL 2), or the telephone base in idle mode.
2. Select RINGER VOLUME.
3. Use any dialing keys to increase or decrease the volume.
4. Press SELECT.

Caller ID

When the feature is on, the telephone displays the caller's name, phone number, and service provider. If no caller information is available, the telephone displays Unknown.

Smart call blocker

If you have subscribe the call blocking service, then the telephone displays the name and phone number of the blocked call.

Caller ID

When the feature is on, the telephone displays the caller's name, phone number, and service provider. If no caller information is available, the telephone displays Unknown.

Ringer volume

You can set the ringer volume level to one of the six levels:

1. Press HOME (CELL 1) or CALLER ID (CELL 2), or the telephone base in idle mode.
2. Select RINGER VOLUME.
3. Use any dialing keys to increase or decrease the volume.
4. Press SELECT.

Caller ID

When the feature is on, the telephone displays the caller's name, phone number, and service provider. If no caller information is available, the telephone displays Unknown.

Smart call blocker

If you have subscribe the call blocking service, then the telephone displays the name and phone number of the blocked call.